All that matters is today

Lyrics by Sara Longo – Music by Alvise Seggi

More than million miles away
Through the shadow of a dawn
More than million ways I'd say
I loved you through a song
All that matters is today
And today there's nothing wrong

Under cover of my dreams
A world needs to unfold
Under everything that seems
A story will be told
All that matters is today
And today there's nothing old

Guess I'd like to go down stream
Let you care about my dream
For I know there is so much more to live
So much more to give

Facing walls and catching trains
Will we make it through these rains
For today there's nothing vain
For today there's nothing wrong

A. Seggi, percussion on track 5/6
A. Seggi and F. Fabiano backing vocals on track 13
